Richard Houck, a recently addition to the club of dissident lawyers, has been attacked by various petty jews for daring to cross their desire to kill all White people.

> A Tweeter who goes by the handle @heywildrich, Houk uses the platform to spread his hatred and contempt for the Jewish people. Houk hates us so much, so it's not surprising he would love Hitler. If this wasn't all disturbing enough, Houk is a licensed lawyer. As my friends at Stop Antisemitism point out, complaints with the Ohio State Bar Association can be filed at this link.

First of all, if jews are so smart, why can't they spell someone's name right? Secondly, the only people who don't hate jews are people jews have tyrannized into silence. No people or entity on earth every liked this group of desert merchants and Houck is no exception. Imagine being so vindictive that you'd crucify someone for criticizing your power…oh wait, wasn't that what Jesus did? Yes, they'd kill God if he got in their way, and did! Richard is not going to get disbarred, because liking White people isn't a disqualification. Check out the "Weekly Anti-Semite" if you want to find some cool frens.
